MUTUAL CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Synthetic demonstration document: a fictional fund and fictional terms, not an offer of securities and not legal advice.

This Mutual Confidentiality Agreement (the "Agreement") is made between Harborline GP IV, LLC (the "Manager") and the prospective investor named on the signature page (the "Recipient"). The Manager and the Recipient are each a "Party".

1. Definitions

"Confidential Information" means all non-public information about the fund, its portfolio companies and its investors that one Party discloses to the other Party in writing or orally.

"Permitted Purpose" means evaluating a possible commitment to the fund.

"Representatives" means the directors, officers, employees and professional advisers of a Party.

2. Use of Confidential Information

The Recipient shall use Confidential Information only for the Permitted Purpose.

The Recipient shall disclose Confidential Information only to its Representatives who need it for the Permitted Purpose and who are bound by duties of confidentiality.

3. Exclusions

Section 2 does not apply to information that is public through no breach of this Agreement, was lawfully known to the Recipient before disclosure, or is independently developed without use of Confidential Information.

4. Required Disclosure

If a court or regulator requires disclosure, the Recipient may disclose only the part of the Confidential Information that is legally required and shall notify the Manager within 5 Business Days, where the law permits notice.

"Business Day" means a day on which banks in New York are open for general business.

5. Return of Information

Within 10 Business Days after a written request from the Manager, the Recipient shall return or destroy all Confidential Information and confirm in writing that it has done so.

6. Term

This Agreement ends 2 years after the date of the last signature. Section 5 continues to apply after that date.

7. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New York, and the courts of New York County have exclusive jurisdiction.
