HARBORLINE VENTURES FUND IV, L.P.

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKLET

Complete edition for limited partners

Synthetic demonstration document: a fictional fund and fictional terms, not an offer of securities and not legal advice.

Instructions

This booklet contains the subscription agreement, the investor questionnaire, the anti-money laundering and tax certifications, the privacy notice and the signature pages for the Partnership.

Each prospective investor must complete Parts A to L of the investor questionnaire, sign each signature page and deliver the completed booklet to the administrator before the closing date.

Capitalised terms not defined in this booklet have the meanings given in the Partnership Agreement. If you have questions, contact your relationship manager. The administrator will confirm receipt soon after delivery.

PART I SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

1. Interpretation

1.1 The provisions of this Section apply to the interpretation of this Agreement and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

1.2 The General Partner shall administer the interpretation of this Agreement in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

1.3 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning the interpretation of this Agreement are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

1.4 Any determination by the General Partner regarding the interpretation of this Agreement shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

1.5 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to the interpretation of this Agreement.

1.6 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to the interpretation of this Agreement, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

1.7 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding the interpretation of this Agreement without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

1.8 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding the interpretation of this Agreement as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

1.9 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to the interpretation of this Agreement to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

1.10 Costs incurred in connection with the interpretation of this Agreement are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

1.11 The General Partner shall keep records relating to the interpretation of this Agreement for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

1.12 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to the interpretation of this Agreement operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

2. Subscription

2.1 The General Partner shall administer the subscription for Interests in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

2.2 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning the subscription for Interests are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

2.3 Any determination by the General Partner regarding the subscription for Interests shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

2.4 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to the subscription for Interests.

2.5 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to the subscription for Interests, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

2.6 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding the subscription for Interests without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

2.7 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding the subscription for Interests as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

2.8 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to the subscription for Interests to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

2.9 Costs incurred in connection with the subscription for Interests are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

2.10 The General Partner shall keep records relating to the subscription for Interests for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

2.11 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to the subscription for Interests operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

2.12 If any provision concerning the subscription for Interests is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

2.13 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to the subscription for Interests that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

3. Closings

3.1 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning each closing of the Partnership are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

3.2 Any determination by the General Partner regarding each closing of the Partnership shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

3.3 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to each closing of the Partnership.

3.4 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to each closing of the Partnership, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

3.5 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding each closing of the Partnership without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

3.6 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding each closing of the Partnership as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

3.7 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to each closing of the Partnership to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

3.8 Costs incurred in connection with each closing of the Partnership are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

3.9 The General Partner shall keep records relating to each closing of the Partnership for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

3.10 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to each closing of the Partnership operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

3.11 If any provision concerning each closing of the Partnership is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

3.12 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to each closing of the Partnership that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

3.13 The provisions of this Section apply to each closing of the Partnership and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

3.14 The General Partner shall administer each closing of the Partnership in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

4. Capital Contributions

4.1 Any determination by the General Partner regarding capital contributions shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

4.2 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to capital contributions.

4.3 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to capital contributions, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

4.4 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding capital contributions without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

4.5 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding capital contributions as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

4.6 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to capital contributions to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

4.7 Costs incurred in connection with capital contributions are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

4.8 The General Partner shall keep records relating to capital contributions for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

4.9 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to capital contributions operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

4.10 If any provision concerning capital contributions is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

4.11 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to capital contributions that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

4.12 The provisions of this Section apply to capital contributions and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

4.13 The General Partner shall administer capital contributions in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

4.14 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning capital contributions are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

4.15 Any determination by the General Partner regarding capital contributions shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

5. Capital Calls

5.1 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to capital calls.

5.2 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to capital calls, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

5.3 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding capital calls without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

5.4 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding capital calls as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

5.5 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to capital calls to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

5.6 Costs incurred in connection with capital calls are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

5.7 The General Partner shall keep records relating to capital calls for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

5.8 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to capital calls operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

5.9 If any provision concerning capital calls is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

5.10 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to capital calls that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

5.11 The provisions of this Section apply to capital calls and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

5.12 The General Partner shall administer capital calls in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

5.13 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning capital calls are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

12.14 The General Partner shall keep records relating to investment restrictions for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

12.15 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to investment restrictions operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

12.16 If any provision concerning investment restrictions is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

12.17 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to investment restrictions that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

13. Conflicts of Interest

13.1 If any provision concerning conflicts of interest is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

13.2 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to conflicts of interest that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

13.3 The provisions of this Section apply to conflicts of interest and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

13.4 The General Partner shall administer conflicts of interest in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

13.5 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning conflicts of interest are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

13.6 Any determination by the General Partner regarding conflicts of interest shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

13.7 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to conflicts of interest.

13.8 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to conflicts of interest, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

13.9 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding conflicts of interest without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

13.10 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding conflicts of interest as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

13.11 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to conflicts of interest to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

13.12 Costs incurred in connection with conflicts of interest are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

14. Advisory Committee

14.1 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to the advisory committee that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

14.2 The provisions of this Section apply to the advisory committee and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

14.3 The General Partner shall administer the advisory committee in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

14.4 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning the advisory committee are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

14.5 Any determination by the General Partner regarding the advisory committee shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

14.6 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to the advisory committee.

14.7 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to the advisory committee, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

14.8 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding the advisory committee without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

14.9 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding the advisory committee as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

14.10 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to the advisory committee to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

14.11 Costs incurred in connection with the advisory committee are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

14.12 The General Partner shall keep records relating to the advisory committee for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

14.13 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to the advisory committee operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

15. Key Persons

15.1 The provisions of this Section apply to key persons and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

15.2 The General Partner shall administer key persons in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

15.3 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning key persons are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

15.4 Any determination by the General Partner regarding key persons shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

15.5 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to key persons.

15.6 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to key persons, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

15.7 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding key persons without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

15.8 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding key persons as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

15.9 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to key persons to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

29.12 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to amendments operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

29.13 If any provision concerning amendments is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

29.14 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to amendments that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

29.15 The provisions of this Section apply to amendments and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

29.16 The General Partner shall administer amendments in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

30. Notices

30.1 The General Partner shall administer notices in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

30.2 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning notices are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

30.3 Any determination by the General Partner regarding notices shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

30.4 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to notices.

30.5 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to notices, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

30.6 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding notices without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

30.7 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding notices as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

30.8 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to notices to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

30.9 Costs incurred in connection with notices are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

30.10 The General Partner shall keep records relating to notices for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

30.11 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to notices operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

30.12 If any provision concerning notices is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

30.13 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to notices that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

30.14 The provisions of this Section apply to notices and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

30.15 The General Partner shall administer notices in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.

30.16 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning notices are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

30.17 Any determination by the General Partner regarding notices shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

30.18 Notices sent by email are effective on the next Business Day, and notices sent by courier will be treated as delivered soon after dispatch.

31. Governing Law

31.1 Each Investor acknowledges that decisions concerning governing law are within the discretion of the General Partner except where this Agreement expressly requires the consent of the Investors.

31.2 Any determination by the General Partner regarding governing law shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

31.3 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to governing law.

31.4 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to governing law, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

31.5 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding governing law without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

31.6 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding governing law as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

31.7 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to governing law to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

31.8 Costs incurred in connection with governing law are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

31.9 The General Partner shall keep records relating to governing law for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

31.10 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to governing law operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

31.11 If any provision concerning governing law is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

31.12 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to governing law that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

32. Dispute Resolution

32.1 Any determination by the General Partner regarding dispute resolution shall be made in writing, shall be recorded in the books of the Partnership and shall be binding on all partners absent manifest error.

32.2 Nothing in this Section limits the rights of an Investor under the side letter, if any, entered into between that Investor and the General Partner in relation to dispute resolution.

32.3 Where the Partnership Agreement and this Agreement differ as to dispute resolution, the Partnership Agreement prevails unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

32.4 The administrator may rely on instructions from the General Partner regarding dispute resolution without independent verification and shall have no liability for acting on such instructions.

32.5 Each Investor shall provide such information regarding dispute resolution as the General Partner may reasonably require to comply with its obligations under applicable law.

32.6 The General Partner may delegate any of its functions relating to dispute resolution to an affiliate or a service provider, but remains responsible for the performance of those functions.

32.7 Costs incurred in connection with dispute resolution are Partnership expenses unless the Partnership Agreement allocates them to the General Partner or to a particular Investor.

32.8 The General Partner shall keep records relating to dispute resolution for at least six years after the end of the term of the Partnership and shall make them available to the auditors.

32.9 No failure or delay by the General Partner in exercising any right relating to dispute resolution operates as a waiver of that right, and no single exercise prevents any further exercise.

32.10 If any provision concerning dispute resolution is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in full force and the invalid provision is replaced by a valid provision closest to its intent.

32.11 The advisory committee may be consulted on matters relating to dispute resolution that involve a conflict of interest, but its views are advisory and do not bind the General Partner.

32.12 The provisions of this Section apply to dispute resolution and shall be read together with the corresponding provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

32.13 The General Partner shall administer dispute resolution in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, the Partnership Agreement and the policies adopted by the General Partner from time to time.
